Dear Board Members and Friends:

At the December State Board meeting the Memphis field office was officially closed. Our budget is currently not able to support two offices. We lost this battle; let us not lose the war for civil liberties.

We must now look forward to how we can continue to protect civil liberties in West Tennessee. One method of such protection is greater public awareness of the ACLU. This is especially important owing to the office closing.

The regularly scheduled board meeting for January is cancelled. Our next meeting will be held on Thursday, February 11, time and location to be announced. Please plan to attend the February meeting as it will be an important meeting for us and for civil liberties in West Tennessee.

Faithfully yours,

Howard
